

TALES OF THE TATRA MOUNTAINS PEAKS

Synopsis

The High Tatras, Slovakia's symbol – offer shelter and asylum to all those who seek calm and refuge for their souls...

Their inimitable ambience and majesty absorb man in his entirety. Anyone who enters their realm should come with humbleness and reverence. It is a unique environment where dishonesty and pride are not tolerated. They remain stony-faced to those who have come to conquer them. But they reveal a little of their mystery to those who come humbly to learn from them...

Amidst a background of beautiful scenery this documentary opens a door for you and invites you to take part in some ascents to the most beautiful peaks of the Tatras.

Written and directed by: Pavol Barabáš

Cameras: Pavol Barabáš, Rastó Hatiar, Martin Jurza

Produced by: Radio and Television of Slovakia & K2 studio

52 min., 2011

The realization of this film was financially supported by the Slovak Audiovisual Fund.